THE FAIR.—Yesterday was the opening day of the First Annual Fair and Stock Exhibition of the Northwest Virginia Agricultural Association, of Wheeling. The weather in the morning was good, affording a fine opportunity for the arrangement of stock and articles of exhibition, which were late getting in. During the afternoon the heavens clouded over, and soon after the rain commenced coming down, interfering materially with the afternoon's proceedings.

the rain commenced coming down, interfering materially with the afternoor's proceedings.

We were present during the morning, and although it was but the commencement of the exhibition, were well repaid for our visit. Quite a number of exhibitor's were arranging their articles in Floral Hall, and everything looked well for a creditable display.

The sheep pens were occupied much more largely than they have been for several years back. One new feature in this department, was a number of Infantado bucks and ewes. We also noticed three extremely fine Cashmer Goats. The display of cattle was not so large as is desirable, but as far as it went was very creditable. All classes of horses were granted.

AGROUND.—Yesterday the steamer Potomac went up to Sweeney's landing, for the purpose of discharging a load of pig metal. In returning, instead of steering straight up the river to the deep water at Martinaville, the pllot, thinking there was enough on the bar, attempted to turn her round whate he was. She soon scraped the bottom, however, and finally stuck fast. After considerable toil abe was got off, but only to go upon the sunken coal boats opposite Wilson, Dunievy & Co's boat yard. Before she could be got off these obstructions, three spars had to be set, and much labor expended.

She resched the wharf eventually, and after loading for Cincinnati left for Total. and after loading for Cincinnati left for CARELESSNESS.—As Mr. Henry Harbour was driving at a walk up Fourth street in his buggy, yesterday morning, a woman, who was strangely heedless of her own safety, started across the street directly in front of Mr. H's horse, and, although she was called to by several parties, continued on her course. Had Mr. H. not brough this horse to a dead halt, she would infallibly have been knocked down and trampled on.

CLEANING Ur.—The Street Commissioner is having things in his department put to rights. The dirt which accumulated on Main street, in consequence of the work on the water pipes, is being thrown on top of that which, extending along the middle of the street, marks the locality of the pipes. On other streets we notice that it is being garted away.

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly feit, even when asleep, and, if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating
